A scenic drive along the Mini-Trail takes you past Antigonish Landing with its green space and walking trail, Lanark with its green hills and modern dairy farms. Driving further, at Harbour Center, you can access the Fairmont hiking trail. After that, enjoy beautiful beaches and cliff top look-offs. Many communities started as summer destinations, but now several artists reside here year-round where they can enjoy the ocean in all its moods, inspiring incredible art. The Mini-Trail Community Center at Lakevale will host a number local Artists. At Cape George Point, you can stop and visit the historic lighthouse. Return to town via Hwy 245 where you'll find a food truck at Half-Cocked Brewery and Artisan's with their work on display and for sale. Swick's Bakery in Lanark (Sunday Only) and Katie's Cafe at Ballantine's Cove will also be open for this event.
